Trinity Homes Receives HBAM Award of Excellence

Ellicott City, MD (May 2007) - Trinity Homes received the prestigious Outstanding Home Award of Excellence from the Home Builders Association of Maryland [HBAM]. On April 25th the 2006 MAX Award Ceremony was held at the Marriott Baltimore Waterfront. Trinity Homes, owned by Michael Pfau, was honored with the Award of Excellence for Ellicott Manor. Ellicott Manor sits on a luxurious 1 acre homesite at the Preserve at Waverly Glen in Woodstock Maryland.

“It is a very high honor to receive an award stating you are the best! A great deal of hard work went into the design, construction and decorating of our Ellicott Manor model and we are all very proud of what we were able to accomplish. We have a great team here at Trinity Homes and that’s what it takes to build a quality home.” Michael Pfau, Trinity Homes.

“The MAX Program recognizes local home builders who provide buyers with excellence in design, livability and value.” [www.homebuilders.org] Trinity Homes has established an exceptional reputation for honesty and integrity, not only from Maryland builders, but among its hundreds of satisfied clients, as well.”
